ASSIGNMENT 108: INTRODUCTION TO FOOD COMMODITIES -- WENDY NYASHA MAHENGA

Task A

Commodities	Frozen	Perishable	Tinned	Dry	Storage methods	Safety and hygiene requirements
Meat (red, white)	✓	✓	✓		Walk in chillers Freezers Climate controlled stores	- Store at 4°C. - Consider expiry dates and labels. - Keep away from direct sunlight and heat sources. - Store in the coldest part of the refrigerator on the bottom shelf. - Use airtight containers or wrap in aluminium foil.
Poultry	✓	✓	✓		Walk in chillers Dry stores	- Choose right packaging. - Place poultry on the middle shelf, separate from other commodities. - Maintain a consistent refrigerated temperature during transportation. - Wrap securely. - The fridge temperature should be 4°C.
Fish	✓	✓	✓		Dry stores Refrigerators freezers	- Store at 4°C or below. - Keep in a covered container or wrap tightly in aluminium foil.

						- Tinned fish should be in dry places between 50-70˚F. - Use stock rotation. - Make use of the expiry dates and labels. - Place on the bottom shelf to avoid cross-contamination.
Dairy		✓		✓	Dry stores Walk in chillers refrigerators	- Refrigerate at 40-45˚F. - Keep liquid milk on the coldest part of the refrigerator. - Keep hydrated milk from moisture and oxygen. - Refrigerate butter at 4℃. - Store cheese at 4℃ and use within 1-3 days of opening.
Fruit and vegetables		✓	✓	✓	Refrigerators Dry stores	- Keep in plastic bags or containers. - Store fruits at room temperature. - Keep in a clean dry container. - Store vegetables in the refrigerator to avoid humid in a dry container. - Consider stock rotation, first in first out.
Pasta and grains			✓	✓	Dry stores	- Use by and sell by dates of received foods and the shelf life in general. - Consider food labeling and stock rotation first in first out .store at 50-70˚F.keep pasta airtight containers such as glass, jugs, food grade buckets.

Beans and pulses			✓	✓	Dry stores		- Refrigerate after opening tinned beans. - Store dry beans in cool fry place on the refrigerator. - Use within 1-3 years.store dry pulses in a cool, dry place. - Keep in airtight container .use within 1-2 years. - Consider stock rotation, first in first out.older foods should be at the front and newer foods at the back. - Keep cans dry to avoid rust.
Convenience foods	✓		✓	✓	Freezers Dry stores		- Store raw foods below cooked foods. - Store caned goods in cool dry places. - Store in suitable covered containers.

			- Store frozen meals in the freezer at 18°C or below. - Avoid freezing thwarted foods - Store dried soups and mixes in a cool dry places. - Check and observe, and keep in cool dry places.

TASK B

Commodities	Local suppliers	National suppliers
Meat	Merreck butchery	Surrey Group
Eggs	Mr Mazai Wholesaler	Irvines company
Dairy	Chimombe Dairy	Dairibord Zimbabwe
Cooking oil	Ebeneezer oil Wholesaler	Zimgold oil industry
Flour	Anywhere investments	Mega Flour company
bread	Mr bread	Bakers inn
tea	Tino local supplies	Tanganda tea company
Sugar	FCG shop	Tongaat hulets Zimbabwe

Benefits of local suppliers	Benefits of national suppliers
Boosts local economy	Wider product range
Fast delivery	Stronger logistics
Increased flexibility	Better support
You get credit facility	Standardized quality
Dependability	Increased reliability
Improved quality	Economic of sales