ASSIGNMENT 107-WENDY NYASHA MAHENGA
PREPARING AND SERVING DRINKS

Main stages for serving a drink

- Greet a customer in a welcoming way.
- Introduce yourself with a smile on your face.
- Check if they have reserved a table or not.
- Sitting them to their tables.
- Highlight any specials on the menu.
- Presentation of the beverage menu to the customers.
- Taking customer's order
- Presentation of order at the bar.
- Serving of complimentary snacks.
- Checking the table regularly to see if they need to add anything they need.
- Presenting the bill.
- Presentation of receipt and change if there is any.
- Check if there is any after payment.
- Bid the customer farewell.

Different types of drinks served, including a draught cola, a hot chocolate, a cocktail

- Coffee
- Hot chocolate
- Beer
- Wine
- Soft drink
- Hot cider
- Tea

Types of drinks served	Equipment	The suitable accompaniments
Coffee	Espresso machine, mugs	Milk, cream
Hot chocolate	Thermometer, mug	Cookies, muffins
Beer	Pint glass, bottle opener	Beer sticks , fries
Wine	Wine glass, corkscrew	Cheese, crackers
Soft drink	Beverage glass, stirrers/ mixers	Popcorn, crackers
Hot cider	Thermometer, stirrers, mugs/cups	Nuts, fritters, cinnamon sticks
Tea	Sauces, tea pot, sugar bowl	Biscuits, sandwiches, muffins